Historical Sketch

Carnival Park opened on May 25, 1906, and closed in 1911. The park was situated between 14th Street, 16th Street, Armstrong, and Barnett in Kansas City, KS. The park consisted of the usual features of an amusement park including a merry-go-round, skating rink, and a shoot-the-chutes over a water fall. There were picnic areas and band concerts as well as a restaurant in the park called the Wigwam Café. The location is now an athletic field.

A history, Great American Amusement Parks, by Gary Kyriazi, pictures Carnival Park and describes it as once equal to New York's Coney Island.
